UWC Adriatic recently celebrated a special occasion: 25 years of unwavering support from Mr. Aldo Pianciamore, a cherished friend of the College.

As a Duinese local, Mr. Pianciamore has provided pocket money to generations of UWC students, exemplifying the deep connection between the College and the local community. Inspired by his late wife, Hazel — an aerodynamics engineer, educator, artist, and passionate advocate for well-being — he has championed kindness and compassion through the Premio alla Bontà foundation.

At the event, students shared heartfelt thank-you cards, and Mr. Pianciamore received the College's silver 500-lire coin as a symbol of our gratitude. A special surprise came in the form of a remote greeting from Elizabeth Sutcliffe, wife of the College's founding Rettore, David Sutcliffe.

We are incredibly thankful for his generosity and for the example he sets, inspiring our students to make a positive impact in the world.
